The Benediction

6. THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave—
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner: oh, long may it wave—
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their lov'd home and wild war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land,
Praise the pow'r that hath made and preserv'd us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave—
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

FLAG RAISING

GRACE CHURCH

MOUNT AIRY, PHILADELPHIA

SUNDAY, MAY SIXTH

:: 1917 ::

1. AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love.
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our Fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing.
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God our King!

2. ADDRESS - - Franklin Spencer Edmonds, Esq.

3. BREAKING OUT THE COLORS

Troop 67, Boy Scouts of America

4. PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

I pledge my allegiance to my Flag, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

5. PRAYER FOR THE DEDICATION OF THE FLAG

Almighty God, the Supreme Governor of the world, who has created this nation out of many peoples of the earth to be an instrument in the establishment of Thy Kingdom among men, bless this banner and grant that it may stand upon the tower of Thy house as a perpetual witness to Thy power and rule over us. May our national life always be inspired by the desire to bring to pass Thy holy purposes; and may the government, of which this flag is an emblem, seek only to advance such causes as shall be pleasing in Thy sight, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

"SO THAT'S WHY I HIT THE PIPE, BOYS"

I smoke and smoke a filthy pipe
That fills my lungs with soot,
And people say it smells as though
I'd lit a worn out boot.

Burning leather does't take
My mind from off my work;
But when flappers' perfumes come my way
I seek this smoky murk.

Big Girl—I walk four miles every morning for my complexion.
Little Boy—Is the drug store that far away?

Dent—Did you visit the Sesqui last summer?
Resi-Dent—No, I live in Philadelphia.

John—When you are out walking with two girls, where do you walk?
Pete—That depends on who the girls are.

"Has your order been taken? asked the proprietor of a well known restaurant.
' Yes", declared the impatient diner,
"and so was Manila Bay."

Attorney—And where did you see him milking the cow?
Witness—A little past the center.

" Didn't I see you going down the street the other day with an apple in your hand?"
" Quite so, old chap.
I was going to see the doctor's wife."

"Are you Scotch by birth?"
" No, by absorption."

Married—" I'm a man of few words."
Also Married—" I know. I'm married, too.

She was only a printer's daughter, but I like her type.

Prof. (in lecture room)—Please sit down in front.
Voice out of darkness—I can't, sir;
I ain't made that way.

She was only a millionaire's daughter,
but—oh, my goodness, isn't that enough?

Traffic Cop—Did you blow your horn?
Motorist—No; why? Does it look like it needed blowing?

RESUME OF PLAY

ACT I.—PLOT BEGINS
ACT II.—PLOT THICKENS
ACT III.—PLOT BECOMES THICKER
ACT IV.—PLOT IS CLEARED UP.

She—What pretty arms that girl has.
He—I didn't know she was standing on her arms.

The Preacher—I had a very enjoyable trip to the Adirondacks The first day I shot two bucks.
Sport—(absently)—Win anything, parson ?

Customer—"I want some winter underwear·"
Salesgirl—" How long ?"
Customer—" How long ?" " I don't want to rent 'em, I want to buy them."

Fair one (to tourist shaving outside of his tent) "Do you always shave outside?
Tourist—Certainly! Do you think I'm fur lined.

Inebriate (getting into taxi) : Home, Jamesl
Taxi driver: What d'ya mean "Home, James? This is a public taxi.
Inebriate: Oh, very well. Home, Jesse James!

What this country needs is not fewer prohibition jokes but better.

Madge; Yes, you say these hats are twenty dollars. Good buy.
Bill: Yes, goodbye twenty dollars.

Cholly: Pop, what's a man with foresight?
Pop: A man with foresight, son, is a man who calls on his girl to propose to her with a bottle of poison in one pocket and the antidote in the other.

Two is company and three is tabloid newspaper copy.

Yesterday we heard positively the last one on our friend, the absent minded professor. He slammed his wife and kissed the door.

" Give me a sentence with the word vermin."
" Before I go fishing I go vermin·"

IN THE LOCKER ROOM

" Hey, fellah, put on some clothes. Don't be effeminate."

"What's the idea, Pete, wearing your socks wrong side out ?"
" There's a hole in the other side."

My girl dresses to please herself, she says.
Well, it doesn't take much to please her.

" What's the dangerous age for a married man ?"
" His wife's."

" Black boy, how did yo' all get that soot on youah coat ?"
" That ain't soot, Carbona ; that's dandruff."

PROCESSIONAL HYMN 208

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts,
eternal King,
By the heav'ns and earth adored:
Angels and archangels sing,
Chanting everlastingly
To the blessed Trinity.

Since by Thee were all things made,
And in Thee do all things live,
Be to Thee all honor paid,
Praise to Thee let all things give
Singing everlastingly
To the blessed Trinity.

Thousands, tens of thousands stand
Spirits blest before Thy throne
Speeding thence at Thy command;
And when Thy command is done,
Singing everlastingly
To the blessed Trinity.

Cherubim and seraphim
Veil their faces with their wings;
Eyes of angels are too dim
To behold the King of Kings.
While they sing eternally
To the blessed Trinity.

Thee, apostles, prophets, thee,
Thee, the noble martyr band,
Praise with solemn jubilee
Thee, the Church in every land;
Singing everlastingly
To the blessed Trinity.

Alleluia! Lord to Thee,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Three in One, and One in Three,
Join we with the heavenly host,
Singing everlastingly
To the blessed Trinity.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 474

O Sion, haste, thy mission high fulfilling,
To tell to all the world that God is Light;
That he who made all nations is not willing
One soul should perish, lost in shades of night:
Publish glad tidings;
Tidings of peace;
Tidings of Jesus,
Redemption and release.

Behold how many thousands still are lying Bound in the darksome prison-house of sin,
With none to tell them of the Saviour's dying,
Or of the life he died for them to win.
Publish, etc.

'Tis thine to save from peril of perdition
The souls for whom the Lord his life laid down;
Beware lest, solthful to fulfill thy mission,
Thou lose one jewel that should deck his crown.
Publish, etc.

Proclaim to every people, tongue, and nation
That God in whom they live and move,
is Love:
Tell how he stooped to save his lost creation,
And died on earth that man might live above.
Publish, etc.

Give of thy sons to bear the message glorious;
Give of thy wealth to speed them on their way,
Pour out thy soul for them in prayer victorious;
And all thou spendest Jesus will repay.
Publish, etc.

He comes again! O Sion, ere thou meet him,
Make known to every heart his saving grace;
Let none whom he hath ransomed fail to greet him,
Through thy neglect, unfit to see his face.
Publish, etc.

A Lesson in Humility

Once within a tiny nation,
In a small and humble town,
In a rude and lowly stable,
God from Heav'n to earth came down——
Not amid majestic splendor,
Seated on a throne of gold,
But in form a little infant,
Meek and harmless to behold.

See how God chose not the mighty
Nor the rich nor high of birth
As the agents of His coming
To the sinful race of earth;
But among a folk oppressed,
In a village poor and small,
Of a young and lowly virgin,
Christ was born to save us all.

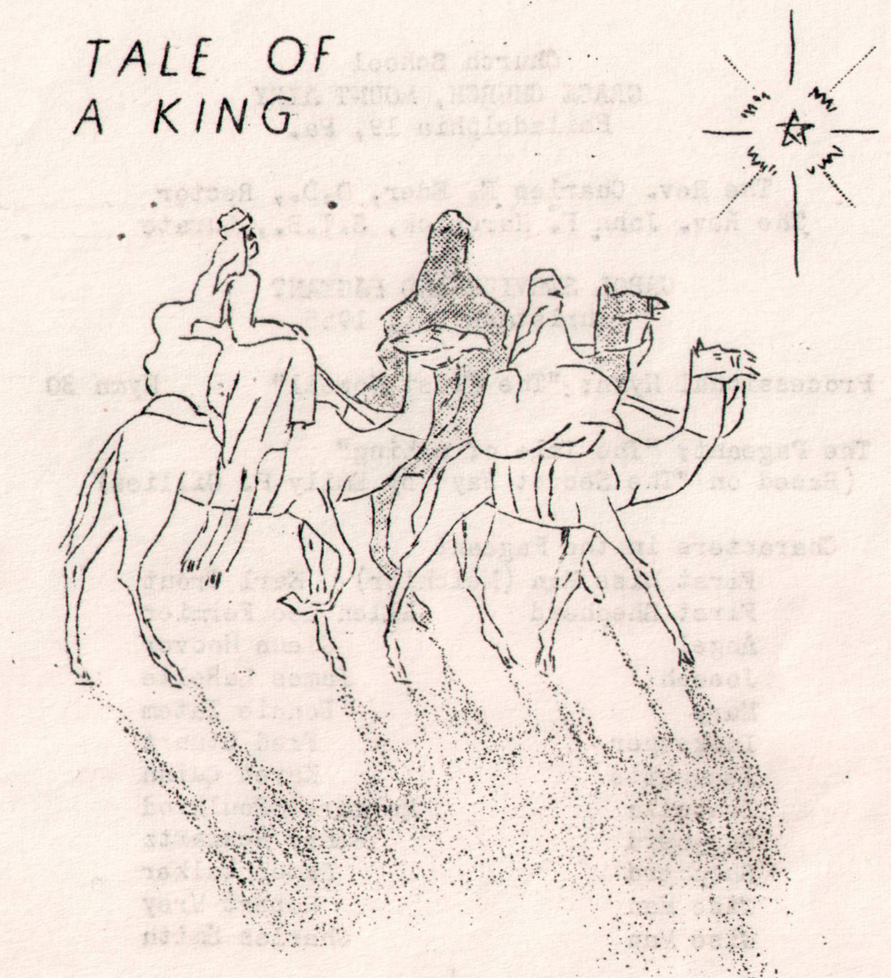

. . . .

Now again, as through the ages
In humility and love
Even so he comes amongst us
With his blessing from above.
Humble still is His appearance——
Now 'tis simple bread and wine——
But with faith, beneath those tokens,
We perceive the Christ divine.

Hail, O Jesus, God's Anointed!
Hail, O Thou whence all began!
Hail, O King, for us made humble!
Hail, O God, for us made man!
Lord, we greet Thee and adore Thee,
From on high now come to earth.
Make our heart Thy lowly dwelling;
Make our life Thy place of birth.
